ST FRANCIS OF ASSISI CHURCH

Grove Crescent Road, Stratford, London, E15 1BJ

Seventh Sunday of Easter – 21st May 2023.

World Communication Day

Christ was the supreme broadcaster. He came to glorify God on earth and make his Father known. On this World Communications Day, we celebrate the role of the media in continuing his mission.

Today's Readings:

Acts 1:12-14: Jesus' disciples were known as "apostles", a word that means sent on a mission.

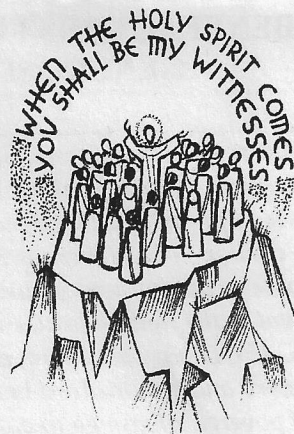

Response to the Psalm: I am sure I shall see the Lords' goodness in the land of the living.

1 Peter 4:13-16: St Peter tells us that it is a glorious thing to bear the name "Christian".

John 17:1-11: Jesus hands on his mission and prays for those to whom it has been entrusted.

"Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me",

On the threshold of his eternal glory in heaven, Jesus said an intimate prayer to his Father. It was his final prayer before his passion and death. The Church calls it the "High Priestly Prayer" as Jesus interceded on behalf of his "friends". Just as Jacob and Moses gave the last benediction to the Twelve Tribes of Israel (Gen 49), so too, Jesus blessed the Twelve Apostles, the new people of God. Jesus completed the work assigned to him by making God known to his followers. Just as the Father sent Jesus into the world, so too Jesus sent his disciples into the world as his apostles (those who are sent). The Apostles were "consecrated" for this work, that is, they were set apart and made holy. Yet they were not removed from the world, but must do Christ's work in the world. God commanded the people of Israel to be holy (Lv.19:2). God's holy people in the Church are a means of sanctification for the entire world.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist:
The Concluding Rites
WE ARE SENT

In the Concluding Rites, we are sent out, receiving God's blessing to be his presence in the world. Why is 'Mass' called 'Mass'? It comes from the Latin words of the dismissal at the very end of Mass – 'Ite, missa est'. 'Go, the Mass is ended'. We are sent out in peace to love and serve the Lord. We've all got a mission to announce the Gospel of the Lord and glorify him in our lives. This means that our 'Amen' to the Lord in Holy Communion is to be an 'Amen' to him in everyone in the world in which we live. We have too see him in other people and serve him in other people, so that what we celebrate at the Altar becomes a reality in our daily lives until we can gather again to celebrate the Eucharist, our great thanksgiving to almighty God. Jesus himself is the living bread that gives life to the world. 'But the Eucharist does not end with the partaking of the Body and Blood of the Lord. It leads us to solidarity with other people. Our communion with the Lord is necessarily a communion with our fellow brothers and sisters. And, therefore, the person who is fed and nourished by the body and blood of Christ cannot remain unaffected when he sees his brothers and sisters suffering want and hunger. People nourished by the Eucharist are called to bring the joy of the gospel to those who have not received it. Strengthened by the living Bread we are called to bring hope to people who live in darkness and in despair'

THANK YOU TO ALL OUR BENEFACTORS FOR THEIR GENEROSITY.

Did you know that Church teaching says that we should not only support those in poverty but also tackle the root causes of poverty? Pope Benedict XVI said that "Love — caritas — is an extraordinary force which leads people to opt for courageous and generous engagement in the field of justice and peace." For decades CAFOD has spoken out against injustice. To find out more and get involved in tackling the root causes of poverty, please go to cafod.org.uk/latest_campaigns
