THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH

28th December 2025

"Families should be communities of faith and love."

READ First Reading: Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14

Responsorial Psalm: Blessed are all who fear the Lord, and walk in his ways.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:12-21 (or 3:12-17)

Gospel Reading: Matthew 2:13-15

Sirach counsels loving respect in a family. Saint Paul encourages us to act with compassion and forgiveness. Saint Joseph is directed by the angel to lead his family to safety.

REFLECT: When we look at a beautiful manger scene, there's little to remind us of the danger that the Holy Family had face. Herod wants to kill the child Jesus, and so they must escape to Egypt. This means that they were refugees, like so many people around the world today, with no home and few possessions. The danger they faced is as real for so many today, as families flee from violence, persecution and death. But in all the dangers, the Gospel teaches us that the Father's plan is still in place. The angel said to Joseph, "Get up"! It's a phrase found throughout the Bible to indicate a vocation. Our families should be communities of faith and love where we can hear God's call. We are all called to seek to do God's will, as loving parents who care for their children, or as children who are keen to learn, to grow and to discover what God is calling them to be.

RESPOND: Celebrate this feast with a family gathering.

Pray: Pray for your family, and pray for all families who are displaced or in danger.

Pilgrimage to Rome – Supporting Our Young People. St Bonaventure's are currently raising funds to support our students as they prepare for a pilgrimage to Rome. This journey is much more than a trip abroad; it is a sacred opportunity for our young people to grow in faith, community, and love of Christ. By visiting the holy sites where the Church first took root and walking in the footsteps of the saints, students will be encouraged to deepen their relationship with God and with one another. We kindly ask for your prayers as our students prepare for this pilgrimage, and for any financial support you are able to offer. Your generosity will help ensure that every student, regardless of circumstance, has the opportunity to experience this life-changing journey of faith. A poster with further information and a QR code for donations will be available at the back of the church.
